

STEPHEN HATHWAY – DIRECTOR

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Admin & Finance (Major in Accounting) – University of New England

Master of Economics – Macquarie University

Chartered Accountant

MEMBERSHIPS

President of the Association of Independent Insolvency Practitioners (AIIP)

The Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia and New Zealand (CAANZ)

EXPERIENCE

Stephen is a Chartered Accountant, Registered and Court Liquidator and the Director of Helm Advisory. Stephen has over 30 years of professional and commercial experience, allowing for him to gain a comprehensive understanding of the corporate world. Through the many jobs that Stephen has taken on, he has also gained an extensive contact list, assisting him in the success of his cases. Stephen has worked on large administrations, allowing for him to work in the following areas: Company Insolvencies, Personal debt mediation, informal and formal personal insolvency agreements and bankruptcy.

Stephen has a comprehensive understanding of selling assets, business turnaround strategies and restructuring. His hands on approach is part of his strategy to achieve successful outcomes with many assignments. He has acted as a liquidator, Voluntary Administrator, Deed Administrator, Receiver and Manager, Agent for the mortgagee in possession and Trustee of Sale of Property.

Specialisations

Stephen presently leads Helm Advisory. Helm Advisory is a specialised insolvency, Chartered Accounting firm which accepts appointments across Australia.

Stephen's other specialties include:

Company restructuring & corporate turnaround

Informal and formal personal insolvency agreements

Personal debt mediation & dispute resolution

If you would like further information about the services that Helm Advisory can provide, please contact our office on 02 9194 4000.